"Seasonal at Butterfly is the way to go"

OK Friday hits, your long hard week of work is finally over, you rush home, grab the family hitch up the camper and your off, towing that big camper trying not to get caught with those crazy summer drivers in that crazy rush hour traffic more like rush hourssss but still hoping to arrive at camp at a decent hour so you're not setting up in the dark....ugh that didn't go as planned, but yea finally mad it, time to kick your feet up and relax wait.. I mean unpack and set everything up. To exhausted to enjoy Friday night, sleep in Saturday , hang out, now it's time to kick your feet up but don't get to comfy, time to do it all over again, just in reverse, UGH pack it all back up, jump in that same crazy traffic just to get back home to UNPACK.... EVERYTHING..... AGAIN.....

*

Make it simple, Set everything once when you arrive the 1st weekend in April, sit back, kick your feet up and relax

ALL SUMMER LONG

Come mid October pack up necessities and leave the rest on site for storage during the off season.

Seasonal Camping at Butterfly is sounding pretty tempting huh? Fun Fact: You won't have to worry about towing that extra load every time especially with the gas prices on the rise again not to mention saving on all that ware & tear on that
